To summarize, for information, data received during the night from offices involved in our continuing investigation of the leak of classified information to "The New York Times."

A Federal Grand Jury, convened at Los Angeles, learned little concerning this matter from a brother of the current wife of Daniel Ellsberg and two reported acquaintances who appeared before it yesterday. Spencer Marx, a brother of Patricia Marx Ellsberg, refused on advice of counsel to answer any questions. Burtram Wallrich and Anne Marie Guilfoile, staff members of the Institute for the Study of Non-Violence, Denver, Colorado, an antiwar group, also appeared before the Grand Jury and, apart from identifying themselves by name and date of birth, refused to answer any questions based upon constitutional reasons. Wallrich has reportedly known Ellsberg since August, 1969, and according to an article which appeared in the 7/6/71 issue of the "Rocky Mountain News," a daily Denver newspaper, Ellsberg had told Wallrich and Guilfoile he had copies of the Pentagon papers and was contemplating making them public.

Following refusal of these three individuals to testify before the Grand Jury, a Departmental attorney advised no plans exist to confer immunity on Spencer Marx, Burtram Wallrich or Anne Marie Guilfoile inasmuch as the possibility exists they are involved in this matter and may be future defendants.

Several other individuals, for whom subpoenas had been issued for appearance before this Grand Jury, could not be located for service of subpoenas, and Departmental attorney advises these persons will be subpoenaed at a later date for Grand Jury appearance at Boston. He also advised Grand Jury hearings at Los Angeles will be completed today, 8/4/71.

The Boston Office advised yesterday that Mrs. Patricia Ellsberg appeared at the Framingham, Massachusetts, office of the Bekins Moving and Storage Company on Monday, 8/2/71, with a request to release some items from storage at the Bekins Warehouse in Santa Monica, California. It will be recalled that Bekins was involved in moving Daniel Ellsberg's household furniture from California to Massachusetts in 1970 subsequent to Ellsberg's termination of employment at the Rand Corporation in Santa Monica. We earlier interviewed the driver of the truck involved in this move and he remembered that in addition to picking up household goods at Ellsberg's home in Malibu, California, he had also picked up several cartons at the Rand Corporation, where Ellsberg had access to classified information, including the complete "McNamara Study."

Following her appearance at the Bekins office last Monday, Mrs. Ellsberg requested that a friend, David Obst (phonetic), from Washington, D.C., be allowed to pick up some photographs and personal items from the Bekins Warehouse, Santa Monica. Mrs. Ellsberg signed a release for these items and a Bekins employee telephonically confirmed the matter with the Bekins office in Santa Monica in Mrs. Ellsberg's presence. David Obst reportedly was waiting in Santa Monica for the release of these items. Mrs. Ellsberg refused to furnish specific details as to the items desired. We are conducting investigation to further identify David Obst and ascertain, if possible, nature of the Ellsberg property released to him.

ACTION:

For information.

Investigation continues to receive intensive investigative attention, and you will be advised of pertinent developments.

Pertinent portions of data herein will be included in a weekly memorandum to the White House and will be furnished to the Attorney General as well as the Assistant Attorney General, Internal Security Division.

No information has been developed by Boston which would indicate that "The Boston Globe" acted in conspiracy with DANIEL ELLSBERG in obtaining access to the McNamara Study. To the contrary, "The Boston Globe" appears to have been the gratuitous recipient of the papers from an anonymous donor. In substantiation, Bureau's attention is invited to the report of [REDACTED], Boston, dated 7/14/71, pages 166-168.

In contact among ELLSBERG's associates at Cambridge, Massachusetts, scope of interviews has included questions designed to identify any collaborators ELLSBERG may have had, including the assistance of New Left elements, in the dissemination of the McNamara Study. Likewise, records of hotels in Cambridge known to have been used by NEIL and SUSAN SHEEHAN have been carefully scrutinized to identify additional persons who may have been involved. To date the investigation has identified only the SHEEHANS and possibly other New York Times personnel as likely conspirators.

Re Bureau airtel all offices 7/21/71.

Exhibit attached to report of [REDACTED] dated 7/21/71 at Denver and captioned "DANIEL ELLSBERG, ESP - X" is news article from 7/6/71, issue of Rocky Mountain News, daily Denver, Colorado newspaper. Writer of article claims to have been in touch with BURT WALLRICH, local non-violent activist, who was in Denver County Jail at the time, and WALLRICH disclosed that ELLSBERG had attended the War Resisters International Conference held outside Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, in August, 1969. Sometime after the conference, ELLSBERG, reportedly visited WALLRICH and WALLRICH's friend, ANNE GUILFOILE, in Palo Alto, California (it is noted that WALLRICH and GUILFOILE were once connected with the Institute for the Study of Non-Violence which is headquartered in Palo Alto.) The article claimed that ELLSBERG's circle of acquaintances include draft resister, RANDY KEHLER, who was at the above conference and "the two militantly pacifist priests, PHILIP and DANIEL BERRIGAN."

Unfair to FBI

One should be fair, even to the FBI. Sanford Ungar's article on the FBI and Daniel Ellsberg in the Sunday Globe of July 25 is not. One FBI agent, not several, interviewed me. In a forty-minute interview he asked one or two questions about Ellsberg's personal characteristics. All other information asked for was factual and objective. I got no impression of an attempt to build up a picture of Ellsberg as an odd or erratic person.

DETROIT IN VIEW OF THE INVOLVEMENT OF THE EDITORS OF THE "CHARLOTTE OBSERVER" AND THE "DETROIT FREE PRESS" AS INDICATED BELOW.

THE ISSUE OF THE "MIAMI HERALD" ON JUNE TWENTYSEVEN LAST CONTAINS FOUR ARTICLES WHICH APPEAR TO HAVE BEEN BASED TO SOME DEGREE ON DOCUMENTS FROM THE MC NAMARA STUDY. ALL FOUR ARE DATELINED WASHINGTON AND THREE HAVE BY-LINES. THE BY-LINES ARE LOYE MILLER, JR., ROBERT S. BOYD, AND SAUL FRIEDMAN, ALL OF THE "HERALD WASHINGTON BUREAU."

THE FOURTH ARTICLE, DATELINED WASHINGTON, NO BY-LINE, APPEARS ON PAGE TWENTYTHREE A OF THE ISSUE. IT IS A COLLECTION OF FIVE SHORT ITEMS EACH CONTAINING MATERIAL IN QUOTATION MARKS. THE ARTICLE CONTAINS INTERNAL EVIDENCE THAT THE QUOTED MATERIAL WAS TAKEN DIRECTLY FROM THE "PENTAGON PAPERS."

AN EDITOR'S NOTE ACCOMPANYING THE FRONT PAGE STORY BY LOYE MILLER, JR., STATED THAT THE ARTICLE WAS BASED ON "EXTRACTS FROM THE PENTAGON PAPERS." THE EDITOR'S NOTE ALSO INDICATED THAT ADDITIONAL SIMILAR STORIES WERE PRINTED IN THE "MIAMI HERALD" "LAST THURSDAY". THE PREVIOUS THURSDAY WAS JUNE TWENTYFOUR LAST.

THE ISSUE OF JULY FOUR LAST CONTAINS AN ARTICLE

ON THE SAME PAGE, THERE ARE FOUR UPI RELEASES DATE-LINED WASHINGTON, ST. LOUIS, BOSTON AND NEW YORK. THESE WERE UPI STORIES BASED ON ITEMS PREVIOUSLY APPEARING IN THE "WASHINGTON POST", THE "ST. LOUIS POST-DISPATCH", THE "BOSTON GLOBE", AND THE "NEW YORK TIMES".

THE "MIAMI HERALD" ISSUE OF JUNE TWENTYFOUR LAST CONTAINS A FRONT PAGE STATEMENT BY LEE HILLS, PRESIDENT AND EXECUTIVE EDITOR OF KNIGHT NEWSPAPERS, INC., HEADQUARTERED IN DETROIT, MICHIGAN. IN THIS STATEMENT, HILLS DECLARED THAT THE STORIES PUBLISHED IN THE KNIGHT NEWSPAPERS OF JUNE TWENTYFOUR LAST RELATING TO VIET NAM WERE DRAWN FROM A PORTION OF THE MC NAMARA STUDY OF THE VIET NAM WAR AND INDICATED THAT THESE DOCUMENTS HAD BEEN EXAMINED BY KNIGHT EDITORS.

THE "HERALD" ISSUE OF JUNE TWENTYFOUR LAST CONTAINED A FRONT PAGE STORY DATELINED WASHINGTON, INDICATING IT WAS PREPARED BY THE HERALD WASHINGTON BUREAU.

Re Bureau airtel 7/27/71, directing recipient offices to review results of investigation to date for any information bearing on possible conspiracy between DANIEL ELLSBERG and New Left antiwar elements.

WFO has carefully reviewed investigation conducted to date by this office and no information has been developed that would indicate ELLSBERG conspired with, and/or was supported by New Left antiwar elements in his activities in leaking classified information to the "Boston Globe" and other newspapers throughout the country. However, indications have been developed of a relationship between ELLSBERG and New Left groups and the possibility that classified data was furnished to individuals in the New Left movement prior to publication of the "Pentagon Papers" by the "New York Times" newspaper.

WFO report of SA [REDACTED], 6/28/71, captioned DANIEL ELLSBERG, ESPIONAGE-X, set out 6/15/71 interview of [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] group, wherein [REDACTED] reported ELLSBERG was very friendly with persons associated with the [REDACTED], characterized as a [REDACTED], related that approximately one year ago [REDACTED] staff member [REDACTED] came to him for the purpose of interview concerning U.S.-Vietnam policy, noting that IPS was doing a ten part history on Vietnam and pointing out "we have a lot of stuff". In the interview, [REDACTED] also cited some things which in [REDACTED] opinion were classified and possibly related to the task force study. [REDACTED] further displayed a penned postscript to a personal letter to him from Professor [REDACTED] wherein the latter advised of being told by [REDACTED], also a professor at Princeton University, that a set of the task force papers seemed to be in circulation among the "New Left types-or that, at least, some materials gleaned from the Task Force seemed to be being leaked."

6/16/71 interview of [REDACTED], denoted in same WFO report, related [REDACTED] recalled the circulation of rumors in recent months that the Vietnam task force study was being offered to various people on Capitol Hill and that one [REDACTED] (phonetic), who works for a lobbying organization, knows the identity of the person offering the documents.

6/24/71 interview of [REDACTED] also denoted in same WFO report, related that [REDACTED] advised of having heard from associates at Brookings Institution, WDC, that the IPS was planning to publish a book on the Vietnam study documents. He indicated that [REDACTED] an IPS official, already had some meetings with a New York publisher and at one of the meetings reportedly showed the publisher the volume or volumes on which the book was to be published. [REDACTED] understood that the publication may already have reached the galley proof stage.

Concerning [REDACTED] allegations of association between ELLSBERG and IPS representatives and the possibility of IPS having had access to classified documents, WFO report of SA [REDACTED], dated 8/2/71, and captioned DANIEL ELLSBERG, ESPIONAGE-X, set out 7/14/71, interview of [REDACTED] Senior Fellow, The Brookings Institution, during which this matter was further explored. [REDACTED] pointed out that the current edition (July 22, 1971) issue of "The New York Review of Books" contained a review of the first of two volumes of "The Secret History of Kennedy's Private War", by RALPH STAVINS, to be released August, 1971. [REDACTED] noted this review states the study of "The Planning of the Vietnam War" by members of the IPS, including STAVINS, RICHARD J. BARNET and MARCUS RASKIN, drew upon the "Pentagon Papers" and interviews with government officials, some of whom backed up their oral statements with documents in their possession, including informal minutes of meetings and portions of the "Pentagon Papers".

[redacted] stated that ELLSBERG is acquainted with [redacted] of the IPS and noted that he observed ELLSBERG at a conference on "The Nixon Doctrine and U.S.-Asian Policy" at the IPS, September 24-25, 1970, during which ELLSBERG presented a paper, "Nuclear Scenarios and Precedents".

[redacted] discounted published reports that ELLSBERG, in making available copies of portions of the study to the press and participation in "New Left" demonstrations, may have been greatly influenced by his present wife, PATRICIA MARX ELLSBERG. He opined that, of the two, DANIEL ELLSBERG is the dominant intellect and personality and that his wife follows his lead in transition from "hawk" to present antiwar position. [redacted] noted that press reports and rumors indicate ELLSBERG has apparently become closely associated with "New Left" types in Cambridge, Massachusetts, but he could not offer any specific comments as to the degree of influence they might have had on him, nor to their identities. [redacted] offered the opinion that ELLSBERG is in no way "clinically insane" but rather a stable individual who is well aware of his actions, the possible consequences thereof, and possibly desiring such consequences.

Reinterview of [redacted] on 7/21/71, also set out in 8/2/71 WFO report, related back to his being contacted by [redacted] of IPS. [redacted] stated that on further reflection he recalled [redacted] told him that he had interviewed a number of people concerning "Vietnam policy making". [redacted] stated it was evident [redacted] had some background knowledge of this matter, and that he asked a great number of questions to which [redacted] replied to [redacted] that he could not discuss because the information was classified. [redacted] at length, said, "Well, we have the stuff anyway." [redacted] then quoted to [redacted] from a March, 1969, memorandum of then Secretary of Defense ROBERT S. McNAMARA concerning U.S. policy making decisions on Vietnam. [redacted] at this point, told [redacted] "If you have stuff like that, you have no reason to talk to me," and then asked [redacted] to leave.

Regarding ELLSBERG's public release of the Vietnam study to "The New York Times" newspaper, [redacted] commented that in his opinion ELLSBERG is an "independent actor". He stated that he believes that when ELLSBERG made up his mind to release the "Pentagon Papers" he did not require any encouragement from anyone else. [redacted] feels that ELLSBERG now thinks he has become the "Man of the year; a sort of hero", and that ELLSBERG fully anticipated this. [redacted] stated he is of the opinion that ELLSBERG was the initial source for all claimants now reported to have possession of the Vietnam study.

Concerning information furnished by [redacted] during 6/15/71, interview relative to identification of Professor [redacted] of Princeton University as the source of report that a set of the task force papers or material gleaned therefrom was in circulation among New Left types, WFO is not in possession of results of further inquiries in that regard.

Concerning information furnished by [redacted] on 6/16/71, that one [redacted] reportedly knows the identity of the individual offering the study to various people on Capitol Hill, WFO summary teletype in captioned matter, 8/2/71, set out details of interview of [redacted] [redacted] advised [redacted] he was told by [redacted] to Senator [redacted] that the "Pentagon Papers" were offered to the Senator's office, but declined to identify by whom. [redacted] indicated he was not aware that ELLSBERG was this individual until so identified in the news media. Interview of [redacted] on 7/12/71, in this regard is set out in WFO report of SA [redacted] dated 7/16/71, and captioned DANIEL ELLSBERG, ESPIONAGE-X.

Telephone toll records, made available through issuance of subpoena duces tecum, reveal toll calls made from telephone number 492-1420, listed to DANIEL ELLSBERG, 10 Hilliard Street, Cambridge, Massachusetts, to Dispatch News Service, International, Inc., WDC, on 3/4/71, and 3/12/71, and to Business Executives Move for Vietnam Peace, WDC, on 3/15/71. Dispatch News Service is possibly associated with IPS and the Business Executives Move for Vietnam Peace is an anti-Vietnam War group. Also, a toll call was made 4/20/71, from telephone number 758-9079, listed to PATRICIA MARX, wife of ELLSBERG, in New York City, to a WDC telephone number listed to [redacted] wife of IPS [redacted]

[redacted] This information will be forthcoming in report form to the Bureau. WFO has canvassed and alerted informants furnishing information concerning New Left and Communist activities to immediately furnish any information coming to their attention concerning DANIEL ELLSBERG, particularly that pertaining to any indications of involvement with IPS in WDC.

WFO, in its continuing investigation, has been and will be alert in any interviews conducted to develop any information which would lend support to, or discount the existence of such a conspiracy. However, no interviews of IPS personnel are contemplated without specific authorization from the Bureau.

Times Will Syndicate Articles by Astronauts

CAPE KENNEDY, Fla., July 23 (UPI) — The special features division of The New York Times will syndicate bylined articles by the three Apollo 15 astronauts and one of their backups, in the United States and abroad, the National Aeronautics and Space Administration announced today.

The announcement said an agreement reached by attorneys for the astronauts with The Times provides for one bylined article each by the Apollo 15 crewmen, Col. David R. Scott, Maj. Alfred M. Worden and Lieut. Col. James B. Irwin, and three articles by the backup lunar lander pilot, Harrison H. Schmitt, a civilian geologist.

Under the agreement, the space agency said, the articles by the prime astronauts will be for publication after the news conference following the end of the Apollo 15 mission. Mr. Smith's articles will be for use while Colonel Scott and Colonel Irwin are on the surface of the moon.

The space agency said the astronauts would receive 50 per cent of the gross proceeds from syndication of the articles and that all of the astronauts would be included in the benefits. "They will split it up," said a space agency spokesman.

"The agreement in no way infringes on NASA's policies for the timely free flow of information to all media on the agency's spaceflight and other activities," the announcement said.

standby for any final rehearsals the crew might decide to make.

The National Weather Service reported today that no adverse weather or showers are expected Monday morning. It said there would be scattered clouds, an unlimited ceiling and visibility of 10 miles.

Apollo 15 is planned as the most ambitious and riskiest of the nation's moon landing missions.

Colonel Scott and Colonel Irwin expect to steer their landing craft to a touchdown in a basin between the towering Apennine Mountains and the deep canyon called Hadley Rille. The landing is scheduled for July 30, a week from today.

NEW YORK'S PICTURE NEWSPAPER

Dear John,

The greatest single threat to our freedom in America today is the NY Times. It is without doubt the official mouthpiece for Moscow in the United States.

It's recent printing of the Pentagon Papers was treasonous, to say the least. They are beginning to realize now, though, that their image has been destroyed by the printing of the classified documents and their circulation since has shown a noticeable decline.

When I read the attached article in the Times - 7-24-71, I became sick to my stomach. It is evident they are trying to make up for their unforgivable sin. They do not deserve the honor of printing syndicated articles by the three Apollo 15 astronauts on their trip to the moon. It was a newspaper coup the Times does not merit.

The NASA official responsible for swinging the deal for the Times should be relieved of his command, transferred or reprimanded.

The solution? Get someone to ~~cancel~~ cancel the goddamn thing. It's still not too late.

A Friend.

Inclosed for each recipient is copy of letter dated 8/4/71 from Assistant Attorney General, Internal Security Division, captioned "Unauthorized Disclosure of Classified Information; The 'New York Times' Series Regarding United States - Vietnam Relations, 1945-1967."

For information of Buffalo, the background concerning the information referred to in the enclosed Department letter is as follows: Investigation of Daniel Ellsberg has disclosed that during about October, 1962, Ellsberg, together with other individuals, duplicated numerous classified documents utilizing a Xerox machine in a firm owned and operated by Lynda Sinay in Los Angeles, California. During March, 1971, Neil Sheehan, correspondent of "The New York Times," and his wife, Susan, engaged in the duplication of documents in the Boston area at two duplicating firms; one of these firms was the Victor Publishers in Bedford, Massachusetts, owned and operated by Robert V. Pace. A Savin machine was utilized in the reproduction of documents at Victor Publishers. During the duplicating, four pages of material became caught in the machine; were recovered by Pace; and later turned over to the FBI.

Re: McLek (Nationalities Intelligence)

As can be seen by the Department's letter, it is not known whether the documents being copied at Victor Publishers were copies of the documents made from the Xerox equipment in Sinay's office. The objective of the Department's request is to attempt to determine whether or not the Sheehans were making copies from copies that were made on Sinay's Xerox equipment.

The Department letter is not clear as to whether Mr. Paul Catan will need exact figures relative to the enlarging factor of the Savin machine from its manufacturers. Accordingly, Buffalo should contact [REDACTED] and ascertain exactly what is required for a determination to be made as to how many generations removed from the original material the copies from the Savin machine were. All leads should be set forth by teletype. Buffalo should make certain the four pages of duplicated material being furnished by Boston are maintained in a chain of evidence.

Boston is instructed to immediately forward directly to the Resident Agent at Rochester, New York, the four pages recovered at Victor Publishers. An original document of an innocuous nature should be prepared on plain bond paper and at least ten copies subsequently made on the Savin machine at Victor Publishers. The original and reproductions should be forwarded directly to the Resident Agent at Rochester, New York.

Los Angeles should obtain Xerox copies of material known to have been produced on the Xerox machine leased by Sinay for the pertinent period; that is October, 1969. Any such material obtained should be treated as evidence and forwarded directly to the Resident Agent at Rochester, New York. Possibility exists copies of this type can be obtained through bankruptcy records and/or business firms in the area of Sinay's firm which reportedly utilized this equipment in the past.

Re: McLek (Nationalities Intelligence)

NOTE:

Department by letter 8/4/71 advised it had been in contact with [redacted] Vice-President for Technical Assurance, Xerox Corporation, Rochester, New York, who advised the Department that if the exact enlarging factor of the original reproduction machine (Sinay's Xerox machine) and the Savin machine at Victor Publishers could be measured, it might be possible to reach a conclusion as to how many generations removed from the original material made by Ellsberg, et al. the resulting copies recovered from Victor Publishers were. In order to do this, it is necessary that [redacted] be provided with the following:

1. The four retrieved copies of material from Victor Publishers.
2. Samples from the Savin machine at Victor Publications.
3. Samples from Sinay's machine as of October, 1969.

It is possible that [redacted] will also need exact figures relative to enlarging factors from the machines involved. He, of course, would have available such information regarding Xerox equipment. It may be necessary to obtain such data from the manufacturers of Savin.

[redacted] is a contact utilized by the Bureau in regard to matters relative to the Xerox Corporation. Memorandum W. R. Wannall to C. D. Brennan dated 6/30/70 obtained Director's approval for contact with Xerox Corporation relative to this case.

Items called for are being sent direct to Resident Agent in order to (1) make chain of evidence less complicated and (2) expedite investigation.

Investigation by Los Angeles determined that an [redacted] came to California in approximately 1969 to visit Daniel Ellsberg. Exact identity of [redacted] was never determined; however, in mid-July, 1971, information was developed [redacted] reportedly talked to the children of Daniel Ellsberg who were then in California, and according to their statements, [redacted] was then at [redacted] in Cambridge, Massachusetts, and was visiting for a two-week period. On 7/21/71, inquiry at 10 Hilliard Street, Cambridge, Massachusetts, developed no information to indicate [redacted] was then visiting or residing with Ellsberg. Boston advised investigation to determine her location was continuing.

In connection with information received from several independent sources indicating Daniel Ellsberg attended a war resisters conference in the Philadelphia area in 1969, Bufiles reveal that the July-August, 1971, edition of the "WRL News," a publication of the War Resisters League (WRL), contains an article identifying Ellsberg as being present as an observer at the Triennial Conference of the War Resisters International (WRI) in 1969. It is noted that the WRL is the United States branch of the WRI, a pacifist organization with affiliates in 20 countries. Bufiles further reveal that the WRI held its Thirteenth Triennial Conference at Haverford College, Haverford, Pennsylvania, 8/25-31/69. Literature pertaining to the Conference included an agenda for the Conference and identified various commissions and workshops held in connection with the Conference. This literature further identified Janaki Tschannerl and Eqbal Ahmad as cochairmen of a commission devoted to the problem of minorities. Other literature relating to this Conference sets forth a statement by the Commission on Manifesto for Nonviolent Revolution which was signed by Janaki Tschannerl and Burt Wallrich, among others.

Investigation in instant matter has determined [REDACTED] is a staff member of the Institute for the Study of Nonviolence, Denver, Colorado, which is an anti-war, anti-draft organization. [REDACTED] reportedly has been acquainted with Ellsberg since August, 1969, and it now appears [REDACTED] initially met Ellsberg at the aforementioned WRI Conference. Ellsberg is reported to have informed [REDACTED] and [REDACTED] another staff member of the Institute for the Study of Nonviolence, that he, Ellsberg, had copies of the Pentagon papers and was contemplating making them public.

NOTE:

Early stages of Mc Lek investigation identified an [redacted] as being close acquaintance of Daniel Ellsberg; however, identification consisted of phonetic name and efforts to locate this individual were unsuccessful. We have now identified, through file reviews, woman who is undoubtedly identical with this individual, and on receipt of information concerning her whereabouts and employment, will consider instructing she be interviewed, and if uncooperative, will furnish such information to Department for consideration in having her subpoenaed for Grand Jury appearance.

Receipt is acknowledged of your letter dated July 28, 1971, relating to our investigation of the Daniel Ellsberg case. In reply to a question we raised regarding the scope of this investigation, you have indicated that it should be as broad as the evidence uncovered indicates is necessary for a full and complete appraisal of the problem relating to leaks of classified information. In view of your instructions, we are expanding our inquiries in this area.

In your letter you commented upon evidence developed by this Bureau as well as by the grand jury in Boston and stated that it was not at all clear that Daniel Ellsberg was responsible for "The New York Times" stories. In this connection, I call to your attention my communication of August 3, 1971, to which were attached 17 memoranda prepared at the request of the President for the benefit of the Honorable Egil Krogh, Jr., his Deputy Assistant for Domestic Affairs. One of these enclosures reviewed in detail our investigation of Daniel Ellsberg and noted therein that information developed to date strongly suggested that it was in fact Ellsberg who released to "The New York Times," as well as to other newspapers, the material which formed the basis for the various articles relating to the "McNamara Study." As set forth in the memorandum on Ellsberg, this was also buttressed by various admissions which have been made publicly by Ellsberg.

It would be most helpful in our continuing investigation of Ellsberg, as well as contemplated expanded inquiries relating to leaks of classified information, if you would furnish to this Bureau any information developed during the course of the Boston grand jury hearing which might bear upon the responsibility of Ellsberg or anyone else for the revelation of the information to the press. This will assist us in pursuing logical leads in the matter.

You have stated in your letter of July 28, 1971, that you do not intend to suggest a departure from established Bureau procedures in handling the foregoing matters. Accordingly, our investigations will be

I. INVESTIGATION AND/OR INTERVIEWS OF MEMBERS [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] P:

A. [REDACTED] LB

Set forth hereinafter are the results of review of

[REDACTED]

[REDACTED] that he is of the opinion that ELLSBERG was the initial source for all claimants now reported to have possession of the Vietnam Study.

[REDACTED] that after ELLSBERG left the Pentagon (early 1968), he returned to Rand and began work for Rand on an entirely different Vietnam study. ELLSBERG then, through HENRY S. ROWEN, President of Rand Corporation, requested access to the "McNamara Study" in possession of the Rand Corporation. At that time [REDACTED] approached [REDACTED] asked him about agreeing to allow ELLSBERG access to the Study. [REDACTED] told [REDACTED] on this occasion that he would not agree to access by ELLSBERG, and [REDACTED] so advised ROWEN. Still later, [REDACTED] again raised the question of ELLSBERG being given access to the McNamara Study, and at that time [REDACTED] gave his permission. [REDACTED] that in giving his consent he explicitly stated that he was agreeing to ELLSBERG's access reluctantly because of his feeling about ELLSBERG's "stability".

When explaining what he meant by ELLSBERG's stability, [REDACTED] that he knew that ELLSBERG, while working on the McNamara Study at the Pentagon, had told people in WDC that he was in fact working on such a Study, at a time when the fact that such a Study was being made was sensitive information. [REDACTED] not recall the identities of any of the individuals to whom ELLSBERG had disclosed the fact he was working on a "Vietnam Policy Study".

Concerning the decision to transfer the McNamara Study to the Rand Corporation, WDC, just prior to the change of the administration (December, 1968 - January, 1969 period), [REDACTED] that in January, 1969, when [REDACTED] made his decision to leave the [REDACTED] at which time [REDACTED] also thinking of leaving DOD, there was some concern on the part of those who had assisted in preparing the Office of Secretary of Defense (OSD) Vietnam Task Force history of U. S. involvement in Vietnam, that perhaps the entire Study might later be destroyed by DOD. They felt that at least one copy of the Study should be preserved. [REDACTED] that as of January, 1969, all of the studies that made up the complete history of U. S. involvement in Vietnam were completed. However, at that time, many of the documents were being retyped under the direction of [REDACTED] DOD, preparatory to printing of the 47 volume Final Report. [REDACTED] that [REDACTED] discussed the matter with [REDACTED], and they decided that two things should be taken out of the Pentagon and stored at Rand, WDC, pending the retyping of documents and distribution of the final sets. He said that this would then assure that pertinent portions of this material would be at MC NAMARA's disposal.

One item decided upon to be taken to Rand, WDC, was a 38 volume "working set" of the McNamara Study. The second item was [REDACTED] private papers, along with binders and notebooks of other individuals who had worked on the Study. [REDACTED] this was the only material dispersed to the Rand Corporation in January, 1969.

CLARK CLIFFORD

[REDACTED] he did not believe that [REDACTED] who had succeeded MC NAMARA as Secretary of Defense in 1968, was even consulted on this move of DOD material to Rand.

[REDACTED] CLIFFORD did not want anything to do with the history of Vietnam, he not believing in history writing by DOD.

[REDACTED] all of the above material was sent to the Rand Corporation, WDC, as "private papers", and that it was his understanding that the DOD contract with Rand had provisions for the storing and retaining of private papers, accounted for through the Rand system of accountability.

[REDACTED] furnish no information concerning the private papers of [REDACTED], and [REDACTED] having later been taken from Rand and stored at the National Archives of the U. S. (Archives). He stated that he had no private papers at Archives.

Continuing his discussion of the movement of documents to the Rand Corporation, WDC, in January, 1969, [REDACTED] that it was not felt that the incoming administration would in any way misuse the McNamara Study, but that this step was taken merely to insure that the Study would remain in existence. [REDACTED] that the participants in the Study recognized the possibility that "someone on high" in DOD might at some later time, make a decision to destroy the entire Study. [REDACTED] emphatically repeated that there was no question of possible misuse by the incoming administration.

Concerning additional documents available to ELLSBERG at the Pentagon, [REDACTED] during the 1964-1965 period, ELLSBERG was employed by the Assistant Secretary of Defense for ISA. DOD. at the Pentagon concerned with Vietnam affairs. [REDACTED] during this 1964-1965 period ELLSBERG had a private safe somewhere in the Pentagon in which he stored documents, which safe was maintained for him at the Pentagon during the time ELLSBERG served with the U. S. Department of State (USDS), in Vietnam, 1965-1967.

[redacted] when ELLSBERG returned to the Pentagon in late Summer or Fall, 1967, he brought these documents to the Vietnam Task Force Study, and some of these documents, not otherwise available to the Task Force, were used in the Study. It is [redacted] understanding that these documents, under ELLSBERG's control, were later taken to Rand Corporation, WDC, by ELLSBERG and placed into the Rand accountability system.

[redacted] related back to information furnished FBI on June 15, 1971 concerning [redacted] and stated that on further reflection he recalled that when [redacted] visited him approximately a year ago [redacted] told him that he had interviewed a number of people concerning "Vietnam policy making". [redacted] it was evident that [redacted] had some background knowledge of this matter, and that he asked a great number of questions to which [redacted] that he could not discuss because the information was classified. [redacted] at length, said "Well, we have the stuff anyway." [redacted] then quoted [redacted] a March, 1969, memorandum of ROBERT S. MC NAMARA concerning U. S. policy making decisions on Vietnam. [redacted] this point, told [redacted] "If you have stuff like that, you have no reason to talk to me," and then asked [redacted] to leave. [redacted] sometime later, he went over to MC NAMARA's office and held a conversation with him during which he related what had occurred when [redacted] visited him. [redacted] that MC NAMARA's conclusion was that in the absence of further evidence, there was no need to do anything about it at that time.

[REDACTED]

D.C. (WDC), furnished the following information concerning the publicized United States (U.S.) Department of Defense (DOD) classified study of U.S. involvement in Vietnam from 1945 to 1967, commonly referred to as the "Pentagon Papers", and his knowledge of DANIEL ELLSBERG, publicly identified as the individual who furnished portions of this study to "The New York Times" newspaper:

[REDACTED] recalled that he was initially recommended [REDACTED] Vietnam task force study group, but that the then Secretary of Defense, ROBERT MC NAMARA, indicated he did not want [REDACTED] to spend too much time on the study because of his many other responsibilities. It was then decided that

[REDACTED] would serve as director of the task force to handle the substance of the study on a day-to-day basis, with [REDACTED]

[REDACTED]

[REDACTED]

[REDACTED] was unable to recall specifically how, or through whom, DANIEL ELLSBERG was brought into the study group, but noted that his previous Vietnam and Cuban Missile research made him a logical candidate. He related that the task force group sought the services of various individuals from the military, Institute for Defense Analysis, Hudson Institute, and Rand Corporation, and ELLSBERG was probably sought from, or recommended by, the Rand Corporation. [REDACTED] stated that [REDACTED] would better be able to identify participants in the study and their assignments, but noted that some 30 to 40 individuals did participate in varying numbers during the course of the entire study. He commented that [REDACTED] was the only one who stayed with the study from beginning to end, and that ELLSBERG was actually only at the Pentagon for a two or three month period during the summer of 1967. He noted that ELLSBERG continued to have access to the study and documents contained therein for continuing research purposes through a copy maintained at the Rand Corporation, which had been set aside for [REDACTED]. Besides [REDACTED] and ELLSBERG, access to this copy was also designated to HENRY ROWEN, President of the Rand Corporation, and [REDACTED] an employee of the Rand Corporation. [REDACTED] stated he was not aware of any particularly close association between ELLSBERG and the other members of the task force study group.

Interviewed on 7/14/71 at Washington, D.C. File # WFO 65-11613

by [REDACTED] Date dictated 7/15/71

Concerning his personal observations of ELLSBERG from a professional, social, and security standpoint, [REDACTED] commented that he has been well acquainted with him professionally and socially. He remarked that ELLSBERG is a very competent researcher who, in his opinion, has become very disturbed about his personal involvement and responsibility in the Vietnam War. He noted that since approximately September, 1969, ELLSBERG talked to many persons about an obligation to speak out and inform the public of their responsibility in the U.S. involvement in Vietnam, and urged others, including [REDACTED] to do so. However, ELLSBERG referred to personal observations in such discussions and did not imply any specific reference to the utilization of classified documents as a basis for informing the public.

[REDACTED] recalled that he met ELLSBERG on the West Coast during [REDACTED] and ELLSBERG was then living quite openly with his present wife, PATRICIA MARX ELLSBERG, in a beach house in Malibu. During this time, ELLSBERG appeared quite disturbed concerning U.S. involvement in Vietnam and urged [REDACTED] to publicly speak out against the war. [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] stressed that he had no awareness then, or at any time prior to the expose of the study in the press that ELLSBERG was, or had intentions of, making copies of the Vietnam task force study for public disclosure.

[REDACTED] discounted published reports that ELLSBERG, in making available copies of portions of the study to the press and participation in "New Left" demonstrations, may have been greatly influenced by his present wife, PATRICIA MARX ELLSBERG. He opined that, of the two, DANIEL ELLSBERG is the dominant intellect and personality and that his wife follows his lead in transition from "hawk" to present anti-war position. [REDACTED] noted that press reports and rumors indicate ELLSBERG has apparently become closely associated with "New Left" types in Cambridge, Massachusetts, but he could not offer any specific comments as to the degree of influence they might have had on him, nor to their identities.

[REDACTED] offered the opinion that ELLSBERG is in no way "clinically insane", but rather a stable individual who is well aware of his actions, the possible consequences thereof, and possibly desiring such consequences. He related that, during ELLSBERG's participation in the study, it was brought to his attention by [REDACTED] that there was concern about ELLSBERG from a security standpoint. He commented that this concern did not evolve from any thought that ELLSBERG might deliberately disclose data pertaining to the study, but rather that his talkative nature might cause him to reveal the existence of the study, which in itself was classified. [REDACTED] noted that ELLSBERG was cautioned in this regard.

In response to queries concerning his knowledge of a rumor that the task force study has been in circulation among "New Left" circles, [REDACTED] volunteered that [REDACTED] had informed him of being approached by [REDACTED] of the [REDACTED] for the purpose of interview concerning a U.S.-Vietnam policy study and that [REDACTED] had implied access on his part to material related to the task force study. [REDACTED] pointed out that the current edition (July 22, 1971) issue of "The New York Review of Books" contains a review of the first of two volumes of "The Secret

"History of Kennedy's Private War", by RALPH STAVINS, to be released August, 1971. [REDACTED] noted this review states the study of "The Planning of the Vietnam War" by members of the IPS, including [REDACTED] and [REDACTED], drew upon the "Pentagon Papers" and interviews with government officials, some of whom backed up their oral statements with documents in their possession, including informal minutes of meetings and portions of the "Pentagon Papers".

[REDACTED] stated that ELLSBERG is acquainted with [REDACTED] of the IPS and noted that he observed ELLSBERG at a conference on "The Nixon Doctrine and U.S.-Asian Policy" at the IPS, September 24-25, 1970, during which ELLSBERG presented a paper, "Nuclear Scenarios and Precedents".

[REDACTED] also related he was shown a letter by [REDACTED] from Professor [REDACTED] of Princeton University, wherein the latter advised of being told by [REDACTED] also a Princeton University professor, that the task force papers allegedly were in circulation among "New Left" types.

With regard to his knowledge of any relationship between ELLSBERG and NEIL SHEEMAN of "The New York Times", [REDACTED] indicated the belief that they were acquainted in Vietnam and that this acquaintanceship has continued. He recalled that during the Fall of 1970, ELLSBERG was in WDC and [REDACTED] inquired of ELLSBERG [REDACTED] t

[REDACTED] ELLSBERG suggested NEIL and SUSAN SHEEMAN among others. [REDACTED] commented that he has also known NEIL SHEEMAN since July, 1966, but has had no contact with him since publication of the "Pentagon Papers".

[REDACTED] further volunteered that, subsequent to the publication of the "Pentagon Papers" by the press, he was informed by [REDACTED]

[REDACTED], that ELLSBERG had offered the "Pentagon Papers" to him for use by the [REDACTED] but that the offer had been rejected.

[REDACTED] advised he became [REDACTED] and was thereupon informed of the existence of the Vietnam task force study. He stated he had no responsibility for the study and his only connection with it was in regard to securing help for [REDACTED] of the study group. [REDACTED] noted that his interest centered on extricating [REDACTED] from the study in order that [REDACTED] could return to his work for him.

[REDACTED] recalled that DANIEL ELLSBERG [REDACTED] on two occasions, once in [REDACTED] and again [REDACTED] to discuss the situation in Vietnam. He commented that ELLSBERG, at the time of these discussions, seemed discouraged and pessimistic about what was apt to happen in Vietnam, particularly in regard to the Tet Offensive, but to the best of his recollection did not appear to question U.S. objectives. At the time, [REDACTED] was not aware of ELLSBERG's connection with the task force study. [REDACTED] remarked that these comprised the only extended conversations [REDACTED] ELLSBERG, except for one other occasion, date unrecalled, when ELLSBERG [REDACTED] at which time they again discussed Vietnam. He noted that ELLSBERG again expressed concern about the situation in Vietnam, but did not make any irrational statements concerning U.S. involvement there.

[REDACTED] further recalled bumping into ELLSBERG once in [REDACTED] at the [REDACTED] and encountered him on one or two additional occasions at the [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] advised he has not read the Vietnam task force study, although a copy of the study, designated for former Secretary of Defense CLARK CLIFFORD, was physically delivered to him and which he in turn stored in a vault [REDACTED]. [REDACTED], but it was just prior to the time ELLSBERG left his DOD job at the Pentagon and joined a State Department task force team under General Lansdale then en route to Vietnam.

[REDACTED] furnished the following recollections regarding this period of [REDACTED] with ELLSBERG:

ELLSBERG was a Special Assistant to JOHN T. McNAUGHTON, Assistant Secretary of Defense. He was ousted from the "front office" at the Pentagon and transferred to a little cubby-hole in "C" Ring at the Pentagon. It was at this point [REDACTED] ELLSBERG [REDACTED].

ELLSBERG was very angry because of the move from the "front office" and felt he had been given a "raw deal." [REDACTED] for ELLSBERG during this period except [REDACTED] recalled that a number of telephone calls were received from ELLSBERG's present wife, PATRICIA MARX ELLSBERG, and is of the opinion that these telephone calls from his present wife originated in California.

Aside from this [REDACTED] could not recall any assignments given [REDACTED] by ELLSBERG. [REDACTED] might have [REDACTED] for him once in a while.

ELLSBERG brought a girl friend to the office at one time and on another occasion brought his children in for a visit. [REDACTED] could not recall the names of any of ELLSBERG's close friends or social acquaintances.

[REDACTED] did not know why ELLSBERG had been demoted. All his papers and whatever materials he worked with were still maintained in the "front office" after he was transferred to "C" Ring.

[REDACTED] could not recall any specifics about ELLSBERG's assignments at this time. He appeared to do little or nothing in "C" Ring.

[REDACTED] had no knowledge of any accumulated materials ELLSBERG might have taken out of the Pentagon when he left his employment there but recalled that just prior to his departure [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] The Security Office would hear of no such delay and ordered him to report for a debriefing before he left the Pentagon.

[REDACTED] recalled that ELLSBERG worked for [REDACTED] on the Vietnam Task Force Study Group in the Pentagon after he returned from Vietnam. [REDACTED] had no association with this group or knowledge of ELLSBERG's activities during that period.

II. INVESTIGATION CONCERNING UNAUTHORIZED DISCLOSURES OF DOD DOCUMENTS

A. Interview of [REDACTED] regarding
Documents Furnished to [REDACTED]
[REDACTED] by DANIEL ELLSBERG

Set forth hereinafter is interview of [REDACTED]

FEDERAL BUREAU OF INVESTIGATION

Date of transcription 7/20/71

[REDACTED] furnished the following information:

[REDACTED] made available for inspection to [REDACTED] documents which he had received from DANIEL ELLSBERG in the Spring of 1971.

By way of background, [REDACTED] related that in May, 1970, [REDACTED] met ELLSBERG [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] when ELLSBERG [REDACTED] introduced himself. The two of them then had a discussion concerning the war in Vietnam and subsequently, in the late Winter of 1970 or early Spring of 1971, ELLSBERG visited [REDACTED] to further discuss the Vietnamese War with [REDACTED] and [REDACTED]. Thereafter [REDACTED] received a letter from ELLSBERG which enclosed a copy of an article the latter had written for "The Washington Post - Times Herald" (Post) newspaper. A couple of weeks later ELLSBERG again visited [REDACTED] office in about April or May, 1971, at which time ELLSBERG furnished the previously mentioned staff assistant a package of documents for [REDACTED] to read. This package was placed unopened in the office safe of [REDACTED] S. At a later time, prior to "The New York Times" (Times) disclosures ELLSBERG saw [REDACTED] in the [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] The [REDACTED] responded in the negative and did not open the package until sometime after ELLSBERG had been identified as the source of the "Times" disclosures.

[REDACTED] has examined the documents given [REDACTED] by ELLSBERG and has determined they are Xeroxed copies of National Security Council (NSC) Study Memorandum Number One dated 1969. This memorandum contains background information on Vietnam.

Interviewed on 7/15/71 at Pentagon, Washington, D. C. File # 65-11613

by [REDACTED] [REDACTED] jh Date dictated 7/20/71

[REDACTED] explained that NSC had sent a questionnaire concerning Vietnam to a number of government agencies, including the United States Department of State (USDS); American Embassy, Saigon, Vietnam; General ABRAMS' Command in Vietnam; Central Intelligence Agency (CIA); United States Treasury Department; and DOD. NSC subsequently summarized responses received from above questionnaire, and these responses are used as "input" for Study Memorandum Number One.

This memorandum was the first study of the Vietnam situation conducted for the President NIXON Administration. ELLSBERG told [REDACTED] that he had prepared the questions used in the questionnaire. [REDACTED] is of the belief that ELLSBERG worked for a time as a consultant to NSC. He concluded that ELLSBERG probably worked under Presidential Advisor, HENRY A. KISSINGER.

With respect to the documents furnished to [REDACTED] by ELLSBERG, [REDACTED] described the package as approximately four inches thick containing paper classified from "Confidential" up to and including "Secret." [REDACTED] recalled that included in the package is a 1966 USDS Department Study concerning pacification in Vietnam, and a four or five page cable classified "Confidential" covering problems in Vietnam. [REDACTED] recalled these particular documents in that they are out of context with the remainder of the material in the package.

[REDACTED] first question to [REDACTED] was whether the material in the package could be declassified. [REDACTED] requested that the material be turned over to him, but [REDACTED] declined stating that he desired to first discuss the matter with Senator HUGH SCOTT of Pennsylvania, adding that he would "get back to" [REDACTED]. [REDACTED] has had no further word on this matter from [REDACTED].

[REDACTED] offered the opinion after having examined the above material in [REDACTED] possession, that this material is not newsworthy, although it does contain some very "sensitive" material. [REDACTED] stated that DOD has no indication that the "Times" or "Post" have copies of this material. He is of the opinion that this material was hastily thrown together by ELISBERG in that it contains some duplicates of documents. [REDACTED] said further that [REDACTED] had not actually read all the material on the occasion of their meeting.

V. INVESTIGATION OF CONTACT OF DANIEL ELLSBERG WITH [REDACTED]

A. Interview of [REDACTED]

Set forth hereinafter is interview of [REDACTED]

FEDERAL BUREAU OF INVESTIGATION

Date of transcription 7/16/71

[redacted] advised he attended a party at the home of [redacted] on the evening of July 8, 1971. During the evening he conversed at length with [redacted] who is also known as [redacted]. He described [redacted] as an old friend who for many years has been extremely well known and active in civic and welfare work. [redacted]

[redacted] and active within the [redacted]. Their conversation included a discussion of the DANIEL ELLSBERG matter and both agreed that he should be prosecuted for causing the release of the McNamara Study papers. [redacted] mentioned in passing [redacted] was acquainted with DANIEL ELLSBERG, and that on at least one occasion, ELLSBERG had visited [redacted] did not mention when this visit occurred, but [redacted] had the impression it was sometime just prior to the release of instant documents. [redacted] continued that ELLSBERG's visit was supposed to be for about two hours. [redacted]

During this time, ELLSBERG [redacted] discussed the "problems" in Vietnam and desirability of ending the war in Vietnam. [redacted] could not state with certainty that [redacted] was referring to instant papers in any context, and the "problem" may have been a general discussion of the Vietnam War and the desirability of ending it.

[redacted] then commented to [redacted] that, since it was agreed that ELLSBERG should be prosecuted for his disclosure, it would be helpful for successful prosecution if anyone having knowledge of ELLSBERG, especially his intentions and activities, should volunteer this information to the Government. [redacted] agreed and then stated she was sure that [redacted] had given all the information he possessed concerning ELLSBERG to Dr. KISSINGER. She further stated that she should not have mentioned the matter since it concerned [redacted] and was really none of her business and that she was sure [redacted] had reported it to proper authorities. She then requested [redacted] not to mention this disclosure elsewhere since it was meant only for that conversation. [redacted] was non-committal on this point to [redacted] but subsequently decided that it was of possible pertinence and decided to tell Assistant Attorney General ROBERT MARDIAN about [redacted] [redacted] acquainted tance with ELLSBERG. When he did so, Mr. MARDIAN advised him that [REDACTED] was already included in the list of known ELLSBERG acquaintances.

[REDACTED] advised he subsequently attempted to call [REDACTED] and advise her that he felt duty-bound to reveal this acquaintance; however, he was unsuccessful in reaching her. He anticipates revealing this to her when he next has occasion to talk to [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] requested that, if it became necessary to interview [REDACTED], he not be advised that [REDACTED] was the source of the information. He stated he desired this in respect for his friendship with [REDACTED]. He concluded by stating that this request should not be honored if there was no other way to broach the subject with [REDACTED] and because of its possible importance, he would willingly certify his awareness of this acquaintance.

B. Interview of [REDACTED]
[REDACTED]

Set forth hereinafter is interview of [REDACTED]

Date of transcription 7/29/71

[REDACTED] was interviewed concerning Daniel Ellsberg, and furnished the following information:

[REDACTED] met Ellsberg in about February, 1969, when [REDACTED] joined the [REDACTED]. Prior to that time [REDACTED] was employed as a consultant in the [REDACTED] Pentagon, Washington, D. C. (WDC), from September, 1967, to February, 1969. He said that in late 1967 and early 1968, while Ellsberg was also employed at the Pentagon, [REDACTED] was employed in the office of [REDACTED] and [REDACTED] and it is quite possible that he had casually met Ellsberg at that time, but if so, he did not recall it. [REDACTED] knew at that time the McNamara Study was in progress, but he did not work on the study. He added that he recalled [REDACTED] was the head of ISA, DOD at the time that the Study was in progress.

[REDACTED] on to state that in February, 1969, when he joined the [REDACTED] [REDACTED] was working for Henry Kissinger, Presidential Advisor for National Security Affairs, and Ellsberg was working for [REDACTED] as a consultant. [REDACTED] Ellsberg's employment at that time was intermittent, in that Ellsberg would work for a few days, and then would be out for a few days, over a period of time.

[REDACTED] understanding that Ellsberg had been working with [REDACTED] during the transition period between November, 1968, and the time President Nixon took Office in January, 1969, possibly both at the Hotel Pierre (New York City), and at the Pentagon, WDC. He stated that at that time, prior to the Inaugural, Ellsberg was working on an NSC questionnaire disseminated to various government agencies and concerned with the question of United States (U.S.) involvement in Vietnam, and was assisting in preparing the questions used in this project. Then toward the end of February, 1969, Ellsberg, while still employed by The Rand Corporation in Santa Monica, California, came back to WDC for a few weeks until possibly April, 1969, to help analyze the results of the questionnaire, which were incorporated into NSC Memorandum Number One. This memorandum

by [REDACTED] Date dictated 7/29/71

was the first study of the Vietnam situation conducted for the Nixon Administration. His employment during this period of time at the [REDACTED] was sporadic and [REDACTED] did not then get to know him socially.

[REDACTED] Ellsberg left the White House in about April, 1969. He next saw Ellsberg in San Clemente, California, in late August or September, 1970, when Ellsberg came there to determine whether or not Henry Kissinger had read the Mc Namara Study. At that time, Ellsberg planned to have lunch with Kissinger, but because the latter was busy at the time, Ellsberg lunched with Kissinger's Deputy, Alexander M. Haig.

[REDACTED] at this time Ellsberg was living in Malibu, California. He stated that on this occasion he saw Ellsberg for just a few minutes, at which time Ellsberg asked if Kissinger had read the Mc Namara Study. [REDACTED] Ellsberg that Kissinger had not read the Study. [REDACTED] he had known of the Study in 1967-1968, but had never read it, although he had seen one or two pages of it. [REDACTED] said that [REDACTED] declined due to the pressures of business. [REDACTED] indicated he was surprised to have received this invitation, as he did not really consider Ellsberg a friend. [REDACTED] recalled, this was about the time that Ellsberg was making the move to join the Massachusetts Institute of Technology (MIT) staff in Cambridge, Massachusetts.

Later, at a date unrecalled [REDACTED] Ellsberg came from Boston, Massachusetts to WDC, to see Henry Kissinger, but he was unable to make an appointment. [REDACTED] recollection concerning this visit was vague, but stated he believed that [REDACTED] was in telephonic contact with Ellsberg on this occasion in connection with Ellsberg's unsuccessful attempt to see Kissinger.

[REDACTED] in November or December, 1970, or possibly early 1971, Ellsberg was in WDC for an unrecalled reason, and arrangements [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] This visit, as recalled [REDACTED] was on a [REDACTED], exact date unrecalled, and expectations were that Ellsberg planned to spend only a couple of hours [REDACTED] Ellsberg appeared at the [REDACTED] WDC, about [REDACTED] in the [REDACTED]. During this extended visit, [REDACTED] and Ellsberg engaged in an extended discussion on the U. S. involvement in Vietnam.

After a time the discussion got around to the "morality" of an individual, on his own, making available classified Government documents for publication. [redacted] his wife took the position that such an action would be morally wrong and unjustifiable. [redacted] at this point the discussion became [redacted] Ellsberg asked, [redacted]

[redacted]

[redacted] when he first met Ellsberg in [redacted] the latter was somewhat of a "Dove", but a "responsible one." [redacted] however, that when Ellsberg visited them in [redacted] Ellsberg was still responsible but "very passionate" in his views, indicating that his "big goal in life was to end the War."

During the interview [redacted] he admitted that he, himself, was basically a "Dove," but felt the U.S. should try to end the War in a responsible way as President Nixon was attempting to do. He stated that he presented this view to Ellsberg, who disagreed with him, saying that President Nixon was really widening the War, "and not going in the right direction."

[redacted] although the discussion with Ellsberg on Vietnam included the general principle of the morality of leaking information, Ellsberg gave no indication as to any particular information or documents he thought should be leaked. He stated that the discussion hinged on certain things that had occurred during the Nixon Administration and had been leaked, but nothing was said by Ellsberg about documents that had come into existence prior to the Nixon Administration.

[redacted] Ellsberg's principal argument during the discussion was that as a "matter of conscience," it was wrong to leak classified information, but it was "a greater wrong to allow the War to go on," and therefore the publication of classified information would be justified.

[redacted] during the approximately [redacted] discussion with Ellsberg, the latter did not mention any other individual or individuals who had ideas similar to Ellsberg's regarding the morality of leaking classified Government documents.

~~SECRET~~

He reiterated that he had no idea, at the time, that Ellsberg had any particular information in mind that he thought should be made available to the public, and Ellsberg gave no indication that he was thinking of leaking the Mc Namara Study.

[redacted] he had no idea that Ellsberg was trying to enlist his services in any way during the discussion with [redacted] and his wife, but felt it is now obvious that Ellsberg was trying "to convey his passion about the war," and was "trying to let everyone who might be close to power know how he felt."

[redacted] the entire discussion with Ellsberg at this time was always cordial, friendly, and "no one became angry, nor did the discussion ever get out of hand." [redacted] he recognized that Ellsberg was a "very intelligent and articulate guy," who was sincere in his passionate stand on the Vietnam War.

[redacted] that on this occasion, Ellsberg had dropped by to elicit [redacted] support for his views, but wanted only to indulge in a "philosophical discussion" concerning the morality of certain actions.

[redacted] even if he had agreed in principle with Ellsberg's thinking on the morality of leaking classified Government information, he did not believe that Ellsberg would have tried to elicit his help to leak information because "Ellsberg wouldn't want to embarrass me."

[redacted] specifically asked if at the time, he had advised Henry Kissinger of the discussion with Ellsberg in the [redacted] he did not because he considered it just a "philosophical discussion" and merely an exchange of views, with Ellsberg taking one position [redacted] taking an opposing position. [redacted] "of course Kissinger now knows that I had a discussion with Ellsberg."

Washington, D. C.

Dear Mr. Krogh:

Enclosed is a summary covering this Bureau's investigation during the past week relating to Daniel Ellsberg and the publication by "The New York Times" of classified material concerning United States-Vietnam relations during the period 1945-1967.

The summary also covers this Bureau's investigation during the past week relating to the recent unauthorized disclosures involving United States overflights of the Chinese mainland, Strategic Arms Limitation Talks, and information set forth in Department of State cables relative to the alleged misbehavior in Kenya of Bert M. Tollefson, Jr., an administrator for the Agency for International Development. Based on developments in our investigation last week relating to the disclosure of information concerning U. S. overflights of the Chinese mainland, we are discontinuing this investigation. However, the other investigations are continuing and you will be furnished further results obtained.

Single copies of the enclosure are also being sent to the Honorable H. R. Haldeman, Assistant to the President, and to the Attorney General.

Upon the removal of the classified enclosure, this letter becomes unclassified.

ReBuairtel to recipients 7/28/71, setting forth pertinent information from testimony of Daniel Ellsberg before United States District Court, Minneapolis, on 1/14/71 during trial of individuals charged with hindering and interfering with administration of the Selective Service System.

GAUNDHIAN STUDENT & INDIAN GIRL

Referenced airtel noted Ellsberg had referred to a [redacted] and to a man named [redacted] as individuals whom he had encountered at a conference of pacifists. During his testimony Ellsberg noted he had been impressed by these individuals, indicating they had a direct effect on his anti-Vietnam War philosophy.

Recipients were requested to remain alert for identities of these individuals as well as the nature, date and location of the pacifist conference referred to by Ellsberg. Referenced airtel noted [redacted] was probably identical with [redacted] and that the [redacted] may be identical with [redacted]. The latter individual had earlier been identified during this investigation as having visited Daniel Ellsberg while he was residing in California and investigation to locate this individual determined she also apparently was in the Boston area in mid-July, 1971.

Information recently developed by various offices has enabled Bureau, through review of Bufiles, to determine that the pacifist conference referred to by Ellsberg in his testimony was the Thirteenth Triennial Conference of War Resisters International, held at Haverford College, Haverford, Pennsylvania, from August 25-31, 1969.

Re: Mc Lek

Data in Bufiles reveals Ellsberg attended this conference as an observer and that Janaki Tschannerl served as a co-chairman of the Problem of Minorities Commission at this conference. Randy Kehler also attended that conference and served as chairman of the Japan/USA Commission.

According to literature distributed at this conference, this gathering was dedicated to the world-famous Indian pacifist, Mohandas Gandhi.

Recipients may, therefore, discontinue lead contained in referenced Bureau airtel to identify the pacifist conference attended by Ellsberg and to identify and initiate investigation of the "Gandhian student" who was also referred to by Ellsberg in his court testimony.

NOTE:

Our intensive investigation of Daniel Ellsberg's associates led to identification of an Indian girl who reportedly was extremely close to him prior to his marriage in August, 1970, and who was identified as being at Ellsberg's Cambridge, Massachusetts, home in mid-July, 1970. Through extensive file reviews we have now determined exact identity of this girl and have ascertained she is an individual referred to by Ellsberg in open court testimony. By separate communication, we have instructed Boston to immediately locate this individual with object of considering interview.

UNAUTHORIZED DISCLOSURES
OF CLASSIFIED INFORMATION

In pursuing our investigation of Daniel Ellsberg, in accordance with your instructions, as well as matters related to the unauthorized disclosures of classified information referred to us by Assistant Attorney General Robert C. Mardian, situations have arisen which require clarification.

You advised me in your letter dated July 28, 1971, captioned as above, that this Bureau's investigation of Ellsberg should be as broad in scope as the evidence uncovered indicates is necessary for a full and complete appraisal of the problem relating to leaks of classified information. An important investigative procedure is, of course, the interview of any individual who has or may have pertinent information.

By letter dated July 2, 1971, in the Ellsberg case, I advised you that we contemplated early interviews with certain news media personalities. I requested that you advise me whether the interviews with them as well as with other news media personnel would conflict with any legal action planned by the Department. On July 3, 1971, Mr. Mardian addressed a letter to me in which he stated there should be no direct contacts with any reporters or newspaper personnel. I request that I be advised when this restriction to our investigation is removed.

In a letter dated July 22, 1971, I called to your attention the fact that [REDACTED] declined to be interviewed the previous day by Agents of our Washington Field Office in the absence of clearance granted by Deputy Attorney General Richard G. Kleindienst. I learned for the first time that officials of the Department had been handling this phase of the investigation and that two attorneys of the Internal Security Division had been designated to conduct the interview with [REDACTED]

On July 14, 1971, I called to your attention information furnished to this Bureau by Brigadier General Joseph J. Cappucci, Office of Special

The Attorney General

Investigations (OSI), U. S. Air Force. General Cappucci advised that Mr. J. Fred Buzhardt, General Counsel, Office of the Secretary of Defense, had requested OSI to enter the case relating to the publication of the "McNamara Study" and to look into the role of Ellsberg in this matter. I advised you that I would have a representative of this Bureau maintain contact with General Cappucci to see that our respective efforts were appropriately coordinated. In pursuance of this course, on August 6, 1971, an Agent of our Washington Field Office informed Mr. John Stahl, General Cappucci's assistant, that we intended to interview [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] Mr. Stahl asked that we defer to the Department of the Army since it was the desire of that Department that [REDACTED] be interviewed by two of its task force members. In this regard, on August 5, 1971, Mr. Buzhardt had advised an Agent of this Bureau that it was his opinion that interviews of military personnel and civilian employees of the Department of Defense should be conducted by investigators of that Department.

By letter dated July 30, 1971, Assistant Attorney General Mardian requested that this Bureau conduct a complete investigation with regard to two unauthorized disclosures, one of which related to information pertaining to the Strategic Arms Limitation Talks appearing in William Beecher's article in "The New York Times" on July 23, 1971.

When our Agents called at the Department of the Army they were advised that that Department had already conducted approximately 100 interviews in this matter and that the source documents for Beecher's article would not be declassified for prosecutive purposes. At the Department of State they learned that State Department had conducted over 100 interviews in the matter and that the FBI could not be given access to investigative results in the absence of clearance from Deputy Undersecretary for Administration William B. Macomber, Jr. Our Agents were advised that Mr. Macomber's clearance would be immediately sought.

As you will see from the above, a number of officials or departments are conducting active investigation in the Ellsberg and the unauthorized disclosure cases. Some of this is obviously duplicating investigation which you have instructed me to institute. In the instances enumerated, I have been unaware of the efforts of the other officials or departments until our Agents have come upon such knowledge in pursuing leads which have been indicated as necessary as a result of the evidence uncovered or on the specific instructions of the Department.

The Attorney General

I request that you advise me at this time of the specific areas to which you desire this Bureau's investigation confined. I further request that you specifically define any limitations and/or restrictions which you feel should be observed by this Bureau in pursuing the investigation.

RE BUREAU TELETYPE AUGUST THREE LAST.

[REDACTED] RAND CORPORATION, SANTA MONICA, CALIFORNIA, ADVISED ON AUGUST FOUR LAST THAT SHE TOOK OFFICIAL RECEIPT OF A BLACK NOTEBOOK ON OCTOBER TWENTYFOUR NINETEEN SIXTYSEVEN. IT HAD BEEN FORWARDED TO RAND BY THE OFFICE OF THE ASSISTANT SECRETARY OF DEFENSE PAREN INTERNATIONAL SECURITY AFFAIRS UNPAREN, DEPARTMENT OF DEFENSE, WASHINGTON, D.C. IT WAS ACCOMPANIED BY AN SD FORM TWELVE, DEPARTMENT OF DEFENSE, WHICH DEFINED THE CONTENTS OF THE NOTEBOOK AS QUOTE ONE NOTEBOOK OF XEROXED WORKING PAPERS UNQUOTE AND THE ADDRESSEE WAS LISTED AS LIEUTENANT COLONEL SIMONS, RAND CORPORATION, SANTA MONICA. THE DATE OF THE TRANSFER WAS OCTOBER SEVENTEEN NINETEEN SIXTY SEVEN BY OFFICIAL COURIER.

10 AUG 10 1971

THE NOTEBOOK CONTAINED A TOTAL OF FIVE SEVEN SIX PAGES AND WAS EXTREMELY UNWIELDY SO ON DECEMBER SEVEN NINETEEN SIXTYSEVEN

SHE SPLIT IT INTO TWO SEPARATE NOTEBOOKS, WHICH HAVE SINCE BEEN REFERRED TO AS QUOTE THE TWO BLACK NOTEBOOKS UNQUOTE OF COLONEL SIMONS. EACH BOOK WAS THEN ASSIGNED A SEPARATE TOP SECRET NUMBER, TS THREE ONE FIVE ONE, CONTAINING APPROXIMATELY THE FIRST HALF OF THE ORIGINAL NOTEBOOK, AND TS THREE ONE FIVE ONE B, THE REMAINING HALF OF THE ORIGINAL NOTEBOOK.

ON MARCH FOUR NINETEEN SIXTYEIGHT SHE WROTE A LETTER TO HEADQUARTERS, DEFENSE CONTRACT ADMINISTRATION SERVICES REGION, LOS ANGELES, REQUESTING PERMISSION FOR SIMONS TO TRANSMIT A PACKAGE OF TOP SECRET MATERIAL FROM RAND TO THE OFFICE OF THE ASSISTANT SECRETARY OF DEFENSE, INTERNATIONAL SECURITY AFFAIRS, WASHINGTON, D.C., ON MARCH FIVE NINETEEN SIXTYEIGHT. PERMISSION WAS GRANTED BY M. ANTHONI, DCRL DASH COL, ADMINISTRATIVE CONTRACTING OFFICER, ON MARCH FOUR NINETEEN SIXTYEIGHT. THIS PACKAGE WAS ITEM FOUR THREE FROM THE SECOND HALF OF THE NOTEBOOK ENTITLED MEMO FOR THE SECRETARY, QUOTE NOTES ON THE SOUTH VIETNAMESE SITUATION AND ALTERNATIVES, SIX JANUARY NINETEEN SIXTYFIVE UNQUOTE PAREN TS UNPAREN, AND CONSISTED OF FOUR PAGES PLUS A COVER PAGE PREPARED BY BUTLER. THIS PACKAGE WAS THEN RETURNED TO RAND BY COURIER ON MAY TWENTY NINETEEN SIXTYEIGHT. BUTLER DOES NOT KNOW NOR DOES THE RECORD SHOW WHY SIMONS TOOK THE PACKAGE TO WASHINGTON, D.C.

END PAGE TWO

ON JULY TWENTYNINE NINETEEN SIXTYEIGHT, BY HER ORDER OF JULY TWENTYSIX NINETEEN SIXTYEIGHT, SEVENTY ONE PAGES OF THE NOTEBOOK WERE DESTROYED BY [REDACTED], A RAND SECURITY GUARD, AND THE DESTRUCTION WAS WITNESSED BY [REDACTED] RAND SECURITY GUARD. THE QUOTE CERTIFICATE OF DESTRUCTION OF CLASSIFIED MATERIALS UNQUOTE DEFINED THE MATERIAL AS TS THREE ONE FIVE ONE DASH A, ITEM NUMBER ELEVEN, EXTRACTED FROM TS THREE ONE FIVE ONE, SEVENTY ONE PAGES, UNDATED. FROM HER RECOLLECTION, THESE PAGES WERE DUPLICATES OF PAGES ALREADY IN THE NOTEBOOK AND THUS WERE DESTROYED BECAUSE THEY WERE NO LONGER NEEDED.

SHE COULD ONLY EXPLAIN THE DISCREPANCY BETWEEN THE INFORMATION FURNISHED BY [REDACTED] IN AN INTERVIEW CONDUCTED ON JUNE THIRTY NINETEEN SEVENTYONE AND THE ABOVE INFORMATION AS DUE TO THE FACT THAT HE WAS RECALLING FROM MEMORY AND PERSONAL NOTES AND SHE WAS READING FROM THE RECORD.

THERE IS NO RECORD OF SIMONS EVER HAVING TRANSPORTED SEVENTY ONE PAGES OF ANY MATERIAL FROM RAND TO WASHINGTON, D.C.

THE NUMBER TS THREE ONE FIVE ONE DASH A WAS ASSIGNED TO THESE SEVENTY ONE PAGES THAT WERE DESTROYED TO DEFINE THEM AS HAVING ORIGINATED FROM TS THREE ONE FIVE ONE BUT THAT THEY WERE NOT THE TOTAL OF TS THREE ONE FIVE ONE. SINCE THEIR DESTRUCTION, TS THREE ONE FIVE ONE NOW CONTAINS THE FIRST TWO SIX SEVEN PAGES AND TS THREE ONE FIVE ONE DASH B CONTAINS THE LAST TWO THREE EIGHT PAGES OF THE ORIGINAL TWO SEVEN SIX PAGES.

END PAGE THREE

[REDACTED] FURNISHED A KEY PUNCH PRINTOUT WHICH SHOWS THAT DANIEL ELLSBERG HAD, IN HIS POSSESSION, TS THREE ONE FIVE ONE AND TS THREE ONE FIVE ONE DASH B ON JUNE TWENTYTWO NINETEEN SEVENTY AND RETURNED THEM TO HER CUSTODY ON SEPTEMBER FIFTEEN NINETEEN SEVENTY.

SHE ALSO FURNISHED A QUOTE TS RECORD OF ACCESS UNQUOTE WHICH SHOWS THAT [REDACTED], SECURITY OFFICER, RAND, APPROVED ELLSBERG'S ACCESS TO THE DOCUMENTS KNOWN AS TS THREE ONE FIVE ONE AND TS THREE ONE FIVE ONE DASH B. THIS APPROVAL IS UNDATED AND APPEARS DIRECTLY AFTER SIMON'S APPROVAL FOR ACCESS, APPROVED BY [REDACTED] ON OCTOBER TWENTYFOUR NINETEEN SIXTYSEVEN, AND IS THE FIRST SUCH APPROVAL ON THE RECORD FOR THOSE DOCUMENTS. THEREFORE, ELLSBERG'S APPROVAL PROBABLY TOOK PLACE SHORTLY AFTER SIMONS' APPROVAL BUT ELLSBERG PRESUMABLY DID NOT DESIRE TO SEE THEM UNTIL JUNE TWENTYTWO NINETEEN SEVENTY. THE QUOTE TS RECORD OF ACCESS UNQUOTE DOES NOT CONTAIN ANY OTHER APPROVAL FOR ELLSBERG, SPECIFICALLY ON JUNE TWENTYTWO NINETEEN SEVENTY, SO HE HAD TO HAVE HAD THE APPROVAL PRIOR TO THAT DATE AND SIMPLY DID NOT FIND THE TIME OR NECESSITY TO REVIEW THE DOCUMENTS.

THE QUOTE TS RECORD OF ACCESS UNQUOTE ALSO CONTAINS THE FOLLOWING NAMES OF INDIVIDUALS IN CHRONOLOGICAL ORDER WHO WERE APPROVED FOR ACCESS AND WHO CHARGED OUT THE DOCUMENTS FROM THE TIME OF THEIR ARRIVAL AT RAND UNTIL THEY WERE SHIPPED TO THE DEPARTMENT OF DEFENSE IN LINE WITH THE CURRENT INVESTIGATION.

PAGE FIVE

[REDACTED]

[REDACTED]

[REDACTED]

ELLSBERG'S NAME DOES NOT APPEAR ON THIS RECORD, BY SIGNATURE, THAT WOULD INDICATE THAT HE EVER CHARGED OUT THE SIMONS PAPERS.

[REDACTED] SAID THAT ELLSBERG DID NOT APPROVE OF SECURITY MEASURES

[REDACTED]

[REDACTED]

[REDACTED]

CONCERNING ACTUAL STORAGE OF THE DOCUMENTS FROM THEIR ARRIVAL UNTIL THEIR RETURN TO DEPARTMENT OF DEFENSE, FROM THE RECORD, THEY WOULD HAVE BEEN IN HER OFFICE FROM OCTOBER TWENTYFOUR
NINETEEN SIXTYSEVEN TO NOVEMBER TWO NINETEEN SIXTYSEVEN, IN [REDACTED] OFFICE FROM NOVEMBER TWO NINETEEN SIXTYSEVEN
UNTIL DECEMBER ONE NINETEEN SIXTYSEVEN, IN HER OFFICE AGAIN FROM DECEMBER ONE NINETEEN SIXTYSEVEN TO JUNE TWENTYTWO NINETEEN
SEVENTY, IN ELLSBERG'S OFFICE FROM JUNE TWENTYTWO NINETEEN SEVENTY

TO SEPTEMBER FIFTEEN NINETEEN SEVENTY, IN HER OFFICE AGAIN FROM SEPTEMBER FIFTEEN NINETEEN SEVENTY TO THE DATE THAT [REDACTED] AND OR [REDACTED] TOOK THEM, IN HER OFFICE FROM THE DATE THAT [REDACTED] AND OR [REDACTED] RETURNED THEM UNTIL JUNE SIXTEEN NINETEEN SEVENTYONE, AND FROM JUNE SIXTEEN NINETEEN SEVENTYONE UNTIL THEIR RETURN TO DEPARTMENT OF DEFENSE THEY WOULD HAVE BEEN IN THE OFFICE WHERE [REDACTED] WORKS. SHE ADDED THAT SHE NEVER GAVE ELLSBERG THE DOCUMENTS PRIOR TO JUNE TWENTYTWO NINETEEN SEVENTY.

IN EXPLANATION FOR THE ABOVE CONTROLS, SHE SAID THAT [REDACTED] WAS APPROVED FOR ACCESS TO THE DOCUMENTS BECAUSE SHE WAS ASSIGNED TO COMPILE A DEFINITIVE LIST OF THE VARIOUS SECTIONS OF THE SIMONS PAPERS BY TITLE, SUB TITLE, AND SO FORTH, BUT NOT OF CONTENT, SO THAT AFTER THEY WERE RETURNED TO DEPARTMENT OF DEFENSE, RAND WOULD STILL RETAIN A LISTING OF THE CONTENTS.

[REDACTED] AND [REDACTED] WERE MEMBERS OF THE SECURITY OFFICE STAFF AND IN ORDER FOR THEM TO GRANT ACCESS APPROVAL AND OR HANDLE THE DOCUMENTS FOR ANY REASON, THEY THEMSELVES HAD TO RECEIVE ACCESS APPROVAL.

THE QUOTE IS RECORD OF ACCESS UNQUOTE FORM WAS ACTUALLY ATTACHED TO THE DOCUMENT FOLDER AND ANY TIME IT WAS NECESSARY FOR ANYONE TO PHYSICALLY HANDLE THESE DOCUMENTS, HIS NAME HAD TO BE RECORDED ON THE FORM AND THE REASON FOR THAT HANDLING.

END PAGE SIX

THEREFORE, CONCERNING [REDACTED] AND [REDACTED]
WHO WAS [REDACTED] NONE OF THESE EVER HAD SO CALLED QUOTE POSSESSION FOR STUDY UNQUOTE OF THE DOCUMENTS. [REDACTED]
WAS GRANTED ACCESS APPROVAL BECAUSE SHE WAS THE [REDACTED]
[REDACTED] WHERE [REDACTED] WORKED AND WAS RESPONSIBLE FOR THE STORAGE OF ALL MATERIAL IN POSSESSION OF MEMBERS OF THAT DEPARTMENT AND WOULD BE REQUIRED TO SIGN FOR POSSESSION OF ANY MATERIAL THAT SHE HAD FOR STORAGE.

[REDACTED] BELIEVES THAT [REDACTED] WAS ABSENT FROM RAND WHEN HIS ACCESS APPROVAL WAS GRANTED AND THAT HE RETURNED TO RAND ON OR ABOUT NOVEMBER TWO NINETEEN SIXTYSEVEN WHEN [REDACTED] SIGNED OUT
THE DOCUMENTS. SUBSEQUENTLY ON DECEMBER ONE NINETEEN SIXTYSEVEN
WHEN [REDACTED] HIMSELF SIGNED THE CHARGEOUT, THIS WAS PROBABLY WHEN HE WAS RETURNING THE DOCUMENTS TO HER CUSTODY AND INDICATES TO HER THAT HE HAD MERELY FORGOTTEN TO COME IN AND SIGN THE CHARGEOUT SHEET IN NOVEMBER NINETEEN SIXTYSEVEN.

AS FAR AS [REDACTED] AND [REDACTED] ARE CONCERNED, SHE WAS UNABLE TO FURNISH AN EXPLANATION FOR THEIR NEED FOR THE DOCUMENTS.

[REDACTED] SAID THAT SHE HAS NOTED THE NAME [REDACTED] APPEARING IN THE QUOTE IS RECORD OF ACCESS UNQUOTE AS AN INDIVIDUAL APPROVED
FOR ACCESS TO THE SIMONS PAPERS. HOWEVER, SHE CANNOT RECALL NOR DO
ANY RECORDS REFLECT THAT HE EVER ACTUALLY HAD THE DOCUMENTS
IN HIS POSSESSION.

[REDACTED] ADVISED SHE IS RESPONSIBLE FOR THE PREPARATION AND MAINTENANCE OF THE KEY PUNCH RECORDS WHICH ARE RETAINED BY RAND CORPORATION UNTIL THE DOCUMENTS ARE EITHER DESTROYED, DECLASSIFIED OR REMOVED FROM RAND CORPORATION, SANTA MONICA, POSSESSION.

WHEN A TOP SECRET (TS) DOCUMENT IS RECEIVED BY RAND, SHE PREPARES AN ORIGINAL AND SEVEN COPIES OF A KEY PUNCH RECORD CARD WHICH CONTAINS THE DESCRIPTION OF THE DOCUMENT, THE AUTHOR, THE DATE OF RECEIPT BY RAND, SANTA MONICA, AND THE TS NUMBER ASSIGNED TO THAT DOCUMENT. THE ORIGINAL OF THAT CARD IS THEN PUT INTO A QUOTE SHELF UNQUOTE OR MASTER FILE, SERIALLY BY TS NUMBER, FROM WHICH SHE CAN MAKE AN INVENTORY CHECK OF ALL TS DOCUMENTS IN RAND'S POSSESSION. THE OTHER SEVEN COPIES ARE RETAINED IN A QUOTE BLANK UNQUOTE FILE. WHEN AN INDIVIDUAL CHARGES OUT A DOCUMENT SHE TAKES THE FIRST OF THE REMAINING SEVEN COPIES OF THE KEY PUNCH CARD PREPARED FOR THAT DOCUMENT AND THE INDIVIDUAL FILLS IN HIS NAME, HIS EMPLOYEE NUMBER AND DATE OF THE CHARGEOUT. THIS CARD IS THEN SENT TO THE KEY PUNCH SECTION WHERE ALL OF THE INFORMATION ON THE CARD IS PUNCHED ONTO THE CARD. IT IS THEN RETURNED TO [REDACTED] SHE RETAINS THIS CARD UNTIL THE DOCUMENT IS RETURNED TO HER. AT THAT TIME SHE SIGNS THE CARD WITH THE DATE OF RETURN AND GIVES IT TO THE INDIVIDUAL AS HIS RECEIPT OF HAVING RETURNED THE DOCUMENT. WHEN A SECOND INDIVIDUAL CHARGES OUT THE DOCUMENT,

SHE TAKES THE SECOND CARD COPY AND THE SAME PROCEDURE IS FOLLOWED. WHEN THE SEVEN COPIES ARE EXHAUSTED SHE THEN PREPARES ANOTHER GROUP OF SEVEN, ETC.

WHEN ELLSBERG TERMINATED HIS EMPLOYMENT ON SEPTEMBER FIFTEEN NINETEEN SEVENTY SHE HAD FOLLOWED THE ABOVE PROCEDURE WITH THE KEY PUNCH SECTION AND RECEIVED A PRINT OUT FROM THAT SECTION SHOWING THAT ELLSBERG CHARGED OUT TS THREE ONE FIVE ONE AND TS THREE ONE FIVE ONE DASH B ON JUNE TWENTYTWO NINETEEN SEVENTY. FROM THIS PRINT OUT SHE COULD DETERMINE THAT THESE PAPERS WERE THE ONLY TS DOCUMENTS IN HIS POSSESSION AT THE TIME AND SHE COULD THEN GO TO HIM WITH THE PRINT OUT, OBTAIN THE DOCUMENTS AND RETURN THEM TO HER POSSESSION. THIS IS THE ONLY RECORD AVAILABLE TO SHOW THAT HE EVER HAD THE DOCUMENTS IN HIS POSSESSION.

CONCERNING THE CARDS, WHEN THEY ARE GIVEN TO AN INDIVIDUAL AS A RECEIPT, RAND HAS REQUESTED THAT THE INDIVIDUALS RETAIN THE CARDS AND NOT DESTROY THEM, BUT THERE IS NO SECURITY RULE AT RAND WHICH WOULD FORCE THE INDIVIDUALS TO RETAIN THE CARDS. SHE KNOWS THAT MOST OF THE PEOPLE DESTROY THE CARDS AS SOON AS POSSIBLE AND ALTHOUGH ELLSBERG WAS MORE OBLIGING ABOUT THE KEY PUNCH CARDS THAN ABOUT OTHER SECURITY PROCUDURES, SHE KNOWS THAT HE NEVER KEPT A RECEIPT ONCE HE HAD RETURNED WHATEVER DOCUMENT HE MIGHT HAVE AND SINCE HE SELDOM IF EVER SIGNED A QUOTE TS RECORD OF ACCESS UNQUOTE FOR ANY DOCUMENT, THERE WOULD HAVE BEEN NO RECORDS WHATSOEVER OF HIS POSSESION OF THE SIMONS PAPERS IF THE TERMINATION PRINT OUT HAD NOT BEEN TAKENT.

WHENEVER SHE CONDUCTS AN INVENTORY OF AN INDIVIDUAL'S TS DOCUMENTS OR A TERMINATION INVENTORY, SHE SENDS ALL OF THE KEY PUNCH CARDS IN HER FILE TO THE KEY PUNCH SECTION. SHE ATTACHES A NOTE REQUESTING THAT SECTION TO RUN THE CARDS FOR THE SPECIFIC EMPLOYEE NUMBER. THAT SECTION PROGRAMS THE KEY PUNCH MACHINE TO KICK OUT ONLY THOSE CARDS FOR THE SPECIFIC EMPLOYEE NUMBER. WHATEVER CARDS MIGHT APPEAR FOR A PARTICULAR INDIVIDUAL ARE THEN RUN THROUGH A SECOND MACHINE WHICH PRINTS OUT THE INFORMATION, IN ENGLISH, WHICH IS CONTAINED IN THE KEYED SLOTS. THIS INFORMATION IS THEN SENT TO [REDACTED] WHO THEN HAS A RECORD OF THE MATERIAL IN THE POSSESSION OF THE INDIVIDUAL AND CAN SUBSEQUENTLY INVENTORY THE MATERIAL HE POSSESSES.

[REDACTED] SAID THAT A LARGE NUMBER OF INDIVIDUALS WHO ARE THERE AS PART OF THE PROFESSIONAL STAFF AS OPPOSED TO SUPPORT PERSONNEL, WHICH WOULD INCLUDE SECRETARIES, CLERKS, TYPISTS, ETC., EITHER DO NOT BELIEVE IN SECURITY PROCUDURES OR DO NOT CARE TO TAKE THE TIME TO FOLLOW SECURITY PROCEDURES AS PRESCRIBED BY RAND. THEREFORE, PEOPLE LIKE ELLSBERG, [REDACTED] AND [REDACTED] COULD NOT BE COUNTED ON TO HELP HER OR OTHER MEMBERS OF THE SECURITY STAFF IN COMPLYING WITH SECURITY REGULATIONS. THEY APPEAR TO FEEL THAT QUOTE THEY CANNOT BE BOTHERED UNQUOTE AND IT IS FOR THIS REASON THE RECORDS OFTEN FAIL TO REFLECT THE REQUIRED INFORMATION.

SHE SAID THAT [REDACTED] CALLED HER A SHORT TIME AGO, SAID THAT HE HAD BEEN INTERVIEWED BY SPECIAL AGENTS OF THE FBI, AND WAS NOT SURE IF HE HAD GIVEN THE SPECIAL AGENTS THE CORRECT DATES CONCERNING WHEN THE SIMONS PAPERS WERE AT RAND, SANTA MONICA, HE WANTED TO CLARIFY WITH HER THE EXACT DATES. SHE SAID THAT IN MOST INSTANCES HIS RECOLLECTION OF DATES HAD BEEN INCORRECT AND SHE WAS ABLE TO CLARIFY THEM FOR HIM.

ON AUGUST FOUR LAST [REDACTED] FURNISHED TRAVEL ORDERS FOR DANIEL ELLSBERG, WHICH SHOW THAT FROM FEBRUARY TWENTYFIVE NINETEEN SIXTYEIGHT THROUGH MARCH TWELVE NINETEEN SIXTYEIGHT ELLSBERG WAS IN WASHINGTON, D.C. TO VISIT THE DEPARTMENT OF DEFENSE FOR THE PURPOSE OF PARTICIPATING IN AN OSD TASK FORCE ON VIETNAM AND WOULD BE VISITING DOCTOR MORTON H. HALPERIN, LESTER GELB, HAROLD MARGOLIS AND MARTIN BAILEY. THERE WAS NO RECORD OF THIS PARTICULAR TRIP TO INDICATE WHERE ELLSBERG STAYED IN WASHINGTON.

WHEN ELLSBERG SUBMITTED HIS TRAVEL VOUCHER HE SIMPLY LISTS SUCH ITEMS AS QUOTE TAXI FROM RESIDENCE, TAXI TO RESIDENCE, TAXI FROM RESIDENCE TO AIRPORT UNQUOTE ETC. HE TOOK AMERICAN AIRLINES FLIGHT SEVEN SIX FROM LOS ANGELES TO DULLES AIRPORT. THE RETURN RESERVATION WAS LEFT OPEN BUT THE RECORD SHOWS THAT HE RETURNED TO LOS ANGELES AT ELEVEN THIRTY A.M. ON MARCH TWELVE NINETEEN SIXTYEIGHT. THE SECOND TRAVEL ORDER REFLECTS THAT ELLSBERG FLEW

HE TOOK AMERICAN AIRLINES FLIGHT ONE FIVE SIX FROM LOS ANGELES TO KENNEDY AIRPORT, EASTERN AIRLINES SHUTTLE FROM NEW YORK TO WASHINGTON, D.C., AND SINCE THE RETURN FLIGHT TO LOS ANGELES WAS AN OPEN RESERVATION, NO AMERICAN AIRLINES FLIGHT NUMBER IS AVAILABLE, BUT THE RECORD SHOWS THAT HE RETURNED TO LOS ANGELES AT EIGHT A.M. ON MAY TWENTYFIVE NINETEEN SIXTYEIGHT. DURING THIS VISIT HE STAYED AT THE HOTEL COMMODORE, FORTY SECOND STREET AND LEXINGTON AVENUE, NEW YORK, FROM MAY TWENTYTWO THROUGH MAY TWENTYFOUR NINETEEN SIXTYEIGHT, AND AT THE MARRIOTT MOTOR HOTEL, U.S. ONE, AT FOURTEENTH STREET BRIDGE, WASHINGTON, D.C., FROM MAY TWENTYFOUR THROUGH MAY TWENTYFIVE NINETEEN SIXTYEIGHT. THE RECORD SHOWS THAT ELLSBERG WAS CHARGED FOR BOTH LOCAL AND LONG DISTANCE TELEPHONE CALLS AT THE HOTEL COMMODORE AND THE MARRIOTT MOTOR HOTEL. THE PURPOSE OF THE SECOND VISIT WAS TO CONSULT WITH VICE PRESIDENT HUBERT HUMPHREY IN NEW YORK CITY AND TO CONSULT WITH L. GELB AND M. HALPERIN WHILE IN WASHINGTON, D.C.

MC LEX, NATIONALITIES INTELLIGENCE. SUMMARY TELETYPE.

[REDACTED] INTERVIEWED AUGUST TWO INSTANT.

ADVISED HE IS PRESENTLY EMPLOYED AS [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] AT LOS ANGELES AND WAS FORMERLY EMPLOYED

AT THE RAND CORPORATION, SANTA MONICA, [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] IN THE [REDACTED]

HE BECAME ACQUAINTED WITH ELLSBERG APPROXIMATELY NINETEEN [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] OR NINETEEN [REDACTED] THROUGH THEIR MUTUAL EMPLOYMENT.

[REDACTED] STATED HE HAS HAD [REDACTED] INTEREST IN LSD AND

MARIJUANA AND [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] HE AND ELLSBERG HAD DISCUSSIONS CONCERNING THESE DRUGS 12 AUG 6 1971

AND ELLSBERG HAD TOLD HIM HE HAD TAKEN PART IN AN EXPERIMENT WITH

LSD. [REDACTED] BELIEVES THIS OCCURRED ON APPROXIMATELY NINETEEN

SIXTYTWO OR NINETEEN SIXTYTHREE. HE ALSO RECALLS THAT ELLSBERG

HAD MENTIONED TO HIM AT APPROXIMATELY THE SAME TIME THAT HE HAD.

END, PAGE ONE

LA 105-27952

Taken LSD

~~TAQI~~ZZSD ON ANOTHER OCCASION. [REDACTED] COULD FURNISH NO DEFINITE INFORMATION CONCERNING ELLSBERG'S EXPERIMENTS WITH LSD AND HAS NO KNOWLEDGE THAT ELLSBERG USED LSD OR ANY OTHER DRUGS OTHER THAN AS SET OUT ABOVE. IN THEIR DISCUSSIONS CONCERNING LSD AND MARIJUANA, ELLSBERG'S INTEREST WAS NOT INORDINATE.

[REDACTED] WAS QUESTIONED AS TO THE POSSIBLE LOCATION OF A PARTICULAR PLACE IN THE SOUTHWESTERN UNITED STATES OR MEXICO WHERE EXPERIMENTS WITH DRUGS COULD ~~OC~~<sup>OCUR</sup> OR THAT MIGHT HAVE BEEN DISCUSSED WITH ELLSBERG AND HE STATED HE HAS NO INFORMATION IN THIS REGARD.

[REDACTED] VISITED SOCIALLY WITH ELLSBERG ON TWO OR THREE OCCASIONS AT ELLSBERG'S MALIBU BEACH RESIDENCE AND MET A SWEDISH OR DANISH GIRL ON ONE OCCASION. THEY NEVER DISCUSSED THEIR WORK AND HE KNEW NOTHING ABOUT THE MC NAMARA STUDY OR ELLSBERG'S PARTICIPATION IN ITS PREPARATION. HE RECALLS HE MET ELLSBERG ON ONE OCCASION SHORTLY AFTER ELLSBERG'S RETURN FROM VIETNAM AT WHICH TIME ELLSBERG EXPRESSED THE SENTIMENT THAT THE UNITED STATES WAS MISTAKEN IN ITS VIETNAM POLICY. HOWEVER, [REDACTED] HAS NO INFORMATION THAT ELLSBERG EVER TOOK DOCUMENTS FROM RAND, XEROXED OR MADE ANY DISCLOSURES TO NEWSPAPERS OR ANYONE ELSE.

ON AUGUST TWO INSTANT THE UNITED STATES COURT OF APPEALS FOR THE NINTH DISTRICT, LOS ANGELES, RETURNED AN OPINION THAT THE JUDGMENT VERSUS ANTHONY ~~RUSO~~, JUNIOR, HAS BEEN AFFIRMED. BAIL

IS REVOKED. RUSSO IS ORDERED TO SURRENDER TO THE UNITED STATES MARSHAL IN LOS ANGELES BY TWO P.M. ON AUGUST FOUR NEXT. IT IS ANTICIPATED THAT RUSSO'S ATTORNEYS WILL APPEAL THIS DECISION TO THE SUPREME COURT AND WILL AGAIN REQUEST BAIL FOR RUSSO DURING THE APPEAL PROCESS.

SUBPOENAS WERE ISSUED AUGUST TWO INSTANT BY DEPARTMENTAL ATTORNEY PAUL VINCENT FOR THE APPEARANCE OF [REDACTED]
[REDACTED]
VIETNAM, LOS ANGELES; JANE ~~YOU~~MAN, MALIBU, CALIFORNIA, A FRIEND AND EX NEIGHBOR OF DANIEL ELLSBERG; AND FOR [REDACTED]
[REDACTED]

[REDACTED] FOR APPEARANCE BEFORE THE GRAND JURY CONVENING IN LOS ANGELES TEN A.M., AUGUST FOUR NEXT. THE SUBPOENA FOR [REDACTED]
[REDACTED] WAS PLACED ABOARD UNITED AIRLINES FLIGHT FIVE ONE EIGHT, ARRIVING SAN FRANCISCO FOUR THIRTYONE P.M., AUGUST TWO INSTANT, WHERE IT WILL BE PICKED UP BY SAN FRANCISCO OFFICE. ATTEMPTS TO SERVE SUBPOENAS BY BUREAU AGENTS ON [REDACTED] AUGUST TWO INSTANT DETERMINED THAT [REDACTED] IS ON AN EXTENDED MOTOR TRIP TO THE EASTERN UNITED STATES AND CANADA, DATE OF RETURN UNKNOWN, AND [REDACTED] HAS NOT AS YET RETURNED TO CALIFORNIA FROM WEST VIRGINIA.

REGARDING [REDACTED] REFERRED TO IN BUREAU TELETYPE
JULY TWENTYEIGHT LAST, IT HAS BEEN DETERMINED THAT [REDACTED] IS AN ATTORNEY WITH OFFICES LOCATED AT [REDACTED]
[REDACTED] INTERVIEWED AUGUST TWO INSTANT
AND ADVISED HIS ASSOCIATION WITH DANIEL ELLSBERG WAS STRICTLY PROFESSIONAL. [REDACTED] ACTED AS THE ATTORNEY FOR DANIEL ELLSBERG
IN HIS DIVORCE PROCEEDINGS WITH CAROL ELLSBERG IN NINETEEN SIXTYFOUR. [REDACTED] ADVISED HE HANDLED THE DIVORCE FOR DANIEL
ELLSBERG AND HAD NO OTHER CONTACT WITH HIM AND HAS NOT SEEN HIM OR HEARD FROM HIM SINCE THE DIVORCE WAS FINAL. ELLSBERG WAS REFERRED TO HIM BY ATTORNEY [REDACTED] AND [REDACTED] HAD NOT KNOWN ELLSBERG PRIOR TO THE DIVORCE.

INVESTIGATION AT [REDACTED], LOS ANGELES, HAS DETERMINED THAT ALL AVAILABLE RECORDS FOR [REDACTED]
FLIGHT SEVEN TWO THREE ON MAY SEVENTEEN NINETEEN SEVENTYONE ARE IN STORAGE AND THAT [REDACTED] RECORDS WILL BE MADE AVAILABLE AS SOON AS POSSIBLE. [REDACTED] ADVISED THAT SINCE THE CARTE BLANCHE RECORDS DO CONTAIN THE COPY OF THE UNIVERSAL CREDIT CARD CHARGE FORM FILLED OUT BY DANIEL ELLSBERG
ON MAY SEVENTEEN LAST, THIS IS DEFINITE PROOF THAT HE ACTUALLY TOOK THE FLIGHT. A CHECK OF AVAILABLE RECORDS INDICATED THAT NEITHER [REDACTED] NOR [REDACTED] APPEARED TO HAVE BEEN PASSENGERS ON THIS FLIGHT BUT IF THEY ALSO USED CREDIT CARDS IT

WOULD BE NECESSARY TO CHECK ALL THE RETURNS FROM THE VARIOUS CREDIT CARD COMPANIES FOR THE MONTH OF MAY TO LOCATE THEIR NAMES. THE ABOVE FLIGHT WAS FROM LOS ANGELES TO SAN FRANCISCO AND AN INDIVIDUAL USING A CREDIT CARD TAKES A COPY OF A UNIVERSAL CREDIT CARD CHARGE FORM, FILLS IN THE REQUIRED INFORMATION AND PRESENTS IT AT THE PLANE. HIS CREDIT CARD NUMBER IS THEN PLACED ON THE FORM. THE INDIVIDUAL RETAINS THE COPY AND THE ORIGINAL IS FORWARDED TO THE CHARGE COMPANY [REDACTED] DOES NOT RETAIN A LIST OF CREDIT CARD PASSENGER PER FLIGHT AS THEY DO FOR OTHER INDIVIDUALS WHO PAY FOR THE FLIGHT BY MEANS OTHER THAN CREDIT CARD.

[REDACTED] BEKINS STORAGE, ADVISED HE WENT TO THE ELLSBERG RESIDENCE IN MALIBU IN SEPTEMBER SEVENTY. HE SAID BOTH ELLSBERG AND HIS WIFE WERE PRESENT AT THE TIME AND HIS PURPOSE FOR GOING TO THE RESIDENCE WAS TO FURNISH AND ESTIMATE ON MOVING COSTS. HE RECALLS THAT ARRANGEMENTS WERE MADE TO TRANSPORT ELLSBERG'S AUTOMOBILE AS WELL AS TO MAKE A PICK UP AT RAND CORPORATION IN SANTA MONICA. HE SAID THAT DELIVERIES WERE TO BE MADE TO TEN HILLIARD STREET IN CAMBRIDGE, MASSACHUSETTS AND ONE TO THIRTY WADSWORTH IN CAMBRIDGE, MASSACHUSETTS.

HE RECALLED NO SPECIAL OR UNUSUAL INSTRUCTIONS REGARDING THE HANDLING OF THE GOODS AND OBSERVED NO CLASSIFIED DOCUMENTS DURING HIS BRIEF VISIT TO THE RESIDENCE OF THE ELLSBERGS. HE STATED THAT THE DRIVER WHO MADE THE PICK UPS WOULD BE MORE KNOWLEDGEABLE.

[REDACTED] WAS REINTERVIEWED ON AUGUST TWO INSTANT. HE RECALLED THAT OVER THE ROAD DRIVERS <sup>RPE</sup> ~~AND~~ REQUIRED BY BEKINS TO STOP AT THE NEAREST BEKINS OFFICE WHERE A DELIVERY IS TO BE UNLOADED. HE STATED THAT IF GOODS WERE UNLOADED IN A WAREHOUSE IN NORWOOD, MASSACHUSETTES, THE DRIVER WOULD HAVE THIS INFORMATION.

LOS ANGELES HAS INTERVIEW SCHEDULED WITH BEKINS DRIVERS [REDACTED] AND [REDACTED] LATER THIS WEEK. AT THIS TIME ADDITIONAL DETAILS WILL BE SECURED.

INFORMATION PERTAINING TO THE PACKING OF ELLSBERG'S MATERIAL AT RAND CORPORATION SET FORTH ON PAGE FIFTYTHREE OF REPORT OF [REDACTED] DATED JULY TWENTYNINE LAST. NO PERTINENT INFORMATION WAS DEVELOPED FROM [REDACTED], WHO PACKED HIS PERSONAL BELONGINGS AND STATED NO CLASSIFIED DOCUMENTS WERE INCLUDED IN THE CONTENTS.

Dear Mr. Hoover:

Your letter of August 3, 1971, with enclosures, responding to the President's letter to you of July 29, 1971, concerning the recent disclosures of classified and other sensitive information to the public has been received.

A review of the material transmitted with your letter demonstrates clearly that the sensitive information disclosure problem is broader and runs deeper than anticipated.

Accordingly, I ask that you utilize the full resources of the FBI to intensify and widen the scope of your investigation of the "leak" problem as related directly or indirectly to the Ellsberg case.

In view of the President's direct concern and insistence on solving the problem of unauthorized disclosures, it would be much appreciated if you would direct that all future investigation on this subject be conducted on a "Bureau Special" basis.

Sincerely,

Egil Krogh Jr.

Dear Mr. Krogh:

I have received your letter of August 6, 1971, asking that this Bureau utilize its full resources to intensify and widen the scope of the investigation of the "leak" problem as related directly or indirectly to the Ellsberg case. You asked that all future investigation on this subject be conducted on a special basis. This is being done.

By separate letter, I am furnishing you a summary of investigation conducted since my communication to you of August 3, 1971, to which was attached a paper on the Ellsberg case. In the future, I will forward a weekly summary to you setting forth results in the Ellsberg and related matters.

Sincerely yours,

Attached is proposed reply to the Attorney General's letter of 7/28/71 in which he stated that our investigation in the Daniel Ellsberg case should be as broad in scope as the evidence uncovered indicates is necessary "for a full and complete appraisal of the problem relating to leaks of classified information." Attorney General further stated that he did not intend to suggest a departure from established Bureau procedures.

These leaks, of course, refer to unauthorized disclosures to the press. Our procedures for investigations of this type were established in a memorandum from the Attorney General dated 5/9/62, from which the following is quoted:

"...it is the opinion of the Department that while cases involving leaks of classified defense information should be considered primarily matters to be handled by the agency which is responsible for safeguarding the information, it remains, however, the responsibility of the Department to determine whether a specific set of facts constitute a violation of our criminal statutes.

"It is recommended that the responsible department or agency be requested to furnish the FBI at the time it reports the leak to the Bureau the same background data as now supplied by the Atomic Energy Commission in its cases. The FBI could at that time refer the matter to the Department for a determination as to whether the investigation should be taken over by the Bureau for the purpose of attempting to develop evidence to establish a violation of the espionage statutes."

In the past 24 hours we have had three leak cases referred to us for investigation by the Department. In one of its letters, the Department referred to the President's interest in these matters and it is known through other information coming to our attention that the President is most disturbed over leaks of Executive Branch secrets and has expressed a determination to see that they are stopped.

Memorandum for Mr. Brennan
Re: UNAUTHORIZED DISCLOSURES
OF CLASSIFIED INFORMATION

In view of this and the specific request of the Attorney General, we are initiating investigations in all leak matters referred to us by the Department on a special basis; however, in the proposed reply to the Attorney General we are asking that the Department advise the Director when a determination is made that the facts in a particular case do not warrant prosecution in order that we may comply with his comment to the effect that he does not intend to suggest a departure from established Bureau procedures.

The Attorney General also indicated that it is not at all clear that Daniel Ellsberg was responsible for "The New York Times" stories. All information we have developed and certain public admissions by Ellsberg indicate to the contrary. Accordingly, we are asking the Attorney General to furnish any material which arose during a grand jury hearing in Boston in this matter which might afford leads for investigation.

ACTION:

- (1) Attached for approval is proposed letter to the Attorney General.
- (2) We are separately issuing explicit and detailed instructions to the field to comply with the Attorney General's instructions and will pursue all matters on a special basis.
